application in better form for appeal.

Continuation of 5. Applicant's reply has overcome the following rejection(s): The proposed amendements overcome the rejection under 35 USC 101 for claims 1 - 13.

Continuation of 11, does NOT place the application in condition for allowance because: The Examiner asserts that the applicant's citation of 3 of Last does not disclose. The intent is not to display the entire tee but instanded a subsect of the available tee times in a convenient fashion that does not require the golfer to undertake an elaborate database query to "zone in" on a desired tee time." Moreover, the Examiner asserts that 34 of Last is providing an alternate embodiment in which the invention can be carried out and one of ordinary skill in the art reading life full reference of Last would have understood that Last does indeed disclose all available times for a particular date and that the subset that Last is referring to is a subset of dates/weeks as a means of providing the user with chunks of information at a time as oppose to inundating the user with information (See 31 wherein Figure 2 discloses all available that for excluding the week and wherein the subset is the particular week that the user is searching through and is further broken down into seven columns to represent a separate day of the week 3 as result, the rejection is maintained.
